LEARN THE SPIRITUAL TRADITIONS OF THE INCAS

with

Altomesayoc Adolfo Tito Condori and the Andean Shamans of AKQ*

facilitated by

Deborah Bryon, Ph.D, Jungian Analyst, author of “Lessons of the Inca Shamans”

“We are going to wire you to these mountains, through your Heart, your Belly, and your Mind. This is not any simple wiring. There are particular prayers that are only spoken when that wire is done at these rites of passage. This is a different type of karpay.”

Our vision has created a journey of emersion into shamanic training with active engagement in ancient Incan energy power sites, led by the Altomesayoc Adolfo Tito Condori and Andean medicine people of AKQ. facilitator Deborah Bryon Ph.D., Jungian analyst has apprenticed with the Andean medicine people in Peru for over a decade and have been initiated into the sacred Incan lineage. In addition to in depth learning of Andean shamanic ritual and practice, fertile space will be held for individual reverie and exploration, working with creative imagery from personal dream states and visions.

AKQ was formed to transmit the ancestral knowledge and the spiritual legacies of the Andean medicine people. The purpose of AKQ is to recover, interpret, and promote the spiritual treasures of the Andes in other parts of the world, during this time of global change and transformation.)*
